A Milestone Worth Sharing

Dear Family and Friends,

As I prepare to celebrate my 50th birthday, I keep thinking about how I want this milestone to feel - not just how I want it to look. I want it to be meaningful, joyful, reflective, full of laughter, connection, beautiful memories, and moments that stay with us long after we return home.

That is what inspired The Heritage Journey.

I would be truly honored for you to join me in Ghana from September 17-25, 2027 as I celebrate 50 years of life through heritage, culture, reflection, connection, and celebration.

IMPORTANT: September 17, 2027 is our travel day as we begin our journey to Ghana.

This experience is about so much more than simply visiting another country. Together, we will explore places that tell powerful stories about our history, experience the beauty and culture of Ghana, enjoy meaningful time together, and celebrate this milestone in a way that feels unforgettable.

There will be moments that make us think, moments that move us, moments that make us laugh, and plenty of opportunities to simply enjoy being together. I can already imagine the conversations, photographs, meals, music, reflection, and stories we will bring home with us.

Enclosed you will find a trip overview, pricing information, and a Heritage Journey Interest Form. If this experience speaks to you, I hope you will consider being part of it.

Interest Form Due: September 14, 2026

Deposit Payment Date: October 1, 2026

This will be more than a birthday trip. My hope is that it becomes a memory we carry for years to come.

With love and anticipation,
Mim Goree
